

Linking with the Past, Preparing for the Future: A Family History Workshop

Saturday, November 14, 2009
9:00am – 12:30pm

3000 Old Cheney Road
Lincoln, NE 68516

Sponsored by:
The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints
Lincoln Family History Center

Please join us for a morning of family history classes and displays.

There is no charge to attend the workshop, but please call the Family History Center (402-423-4561) or Carrie Pierson (402-416-7325) to pre-register for the 10:15am and 11:15am classes. You may also pre-register by e-mail (LincolnFHC@gmail.com).

Schedule of Events

9:30am – Keynote Address

What's New with Family History by James Randall

10:15am & 11:15am – Classes

All three classes will be presented at each time period.

- 1) All Things Digital by Bryan Leavitt
Basics of Scanning, Organizing and Modifying Digital Images and Records
- 2) What's Your Story? by Audrey Nitz
Preserving Family Stories through Interviewing, Video Recording, Diaries and Oral Storytelling
- 3) Where in the World Did They Come From? by Lila Garner
Tips & Techniques to find towns where our ancestors were born.

9:00am to 12:30pm – Displays

- Involving Children in Family History
- Medical Family History
- Beginning Genealogy
- Preserving Memorabilia
- Children's Activity Center
- Digital Books
- Food Traditions

NOTE – While children are welcome to attend, a nursery will not be provided.